To whom it may concern

Your Excellency,

As a part of on-going activities to increase level of internationalisation, University of Sarajevo is launching promotional campaign with slogan „Be What You Are – Study What You Want“. Currently, 3 percent of our students are international students, but we would like to increase size and diversity of that community. We strongly believe that diversity brings added value to young people life, education and creates global citizens. We build and develop diversity to support our effort to provide fully flavoured, colourful and integrated student experience making them open-minded, tolerant persons with strong capacity to use and share ideas and work in highly diversify and changeable environment. So, being within top 6 percent of the best universities World-wide, for young people we guarantee great and life changing study experience that will path road to success. Some students testimonials can be find on our YouTube channel: <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCWDYTX9HVHIF2BPghjoYx1A>

Over 500 study programs from very different field of science (25 faculties) are tailored to serve and fulfil students' curiosity and wish to discover the World and decide how to make their life successful. Our students have opportunity to travel and study being part of our rich student & staff mobility program (see: <http://www.erasmus.unsa.ba/iro-2/>)

Detailed information about study programs can be find at: <http://registar.unsa.ba/>

University of Sarajevo academic community includes more than 28 thousand students and over 3.5 thousand professors and academic staff. Open-minded and diverse academic community reflects values of ancient city of Sarajevo, that connect East and West, high technology and traditional easy going way of life, where socialisation “is must” and where students cannot be an “island”. It is open, attractive and supportive environment that provoke and motivate young people to “think out of box” and to experience life.

We invite you and young interested people to learn more about us and be part of our two major events:

- “Be Student at University of Sarajevo for one day” – our faculties are opening their facilities, teaching and research resources giving opportunity to young people to experience, discuss and learn more about study process – more information can be find on: <https://www.unsa.ba/novosti/budi-sta-jesi-studiraj-sta-zelis>
- “University of Sarajevo Open Door Day & Night” which will be organised at beautiful building and rich botanical garden of National Museum on 19 April 2019. This will be opportunity to learn about roots of B&H academic education and celebrate 131 anniversary of Museum.

With all mentioned above, we invite you to support our promotional campaign to become part of open and creative UNSA community. Be with us on:
